

EASTERN HIGH SCHOOL
WINS FIRST CHAMPIONSHIPEastern Nine Wins
High School Title

Defeats Western, 6 to 5, and Gains Its First Baseball Championship—Greer's Steal of Third Big Factor in Victory.

By C. W. SWAN.

For the first time in the history of Eastern High School a baseball team captured the premier honors in the Interhigh School Baseball League yesterday at University Field, Brookland, by overcoming Western's three-run advantage in a great batting rally in the eighth inning which gave the winners the decision and the championship, 6 to 5.

More evident than at any time this year was the courage of Eastern's most adversity. In every previous game its play has been characterized by a total absence of submissiveness, even under the trying and hopeless situations. In yesterday's game the exception was not apparent. Had not been the case, or had the little Light Blue and White club not braced with the appearance of a possible defeat, then the championship might have been tied.

Instead, Eastern kept at the struggle, though there were occasions when Adams, the Western pitcher, with a baffling assortment, retired them easily. This would have stifled the courage of the average high school team. Following desperate though apparently hopeless efforts to even up or surpass the advantage of three Western runs, the Eastern band began to play in the big eighth and sent Adams and his teammates into chaotic despair when four successive hits counted for one less run. This eventually proved enough to add the newcomer among the elite of high school baseball champions.

Greer Starts Rally.

Frank Greer started off the eighth with a clean single to center, and Thornton followed with a home run on first and second. The Western infield played deep. Greer, alert, dashed for third when Adams started to wind up. He made a dash and Thornton completed a double steal.

This play won the ball game for Eastern, as the ascension of Adams promptly followed. Fisher came through with a single to center scoring Greer, and Shinn got his second hit, sending Thornton and Fisher home with the tally which eventually gave the Capitol Hill institution the title.

The game was the most exciting of the series. Spectacular plays predominated the thrills, though the infielders made just enough errors to make the game interesting. With men on first and second, as both clubs hit the ball hard, the Eastern team was in a position to win. Thornton, on third, and Fisher, in center, played great games for Eastern. Thornton grabbed a foul fly off Royer's stick, in the seventh, and making a daring dash into the crowd, while Fisher, in center, took care of no less than six chances in faultless style.

Paul Coblin Stars.

Paul Coblin is another lad whose general excellence was distinguished. Coblin caught one of the best games of his career. He held up Johnston, who was very untidy in the early stages in the game, and also started a double play in the opening frame which prevented an early lead which might have been to Coblin's advantage. Taken all in all, Coblin just about saved Johnston the game.

The Howard brothers, "Buck" and "Bron", played good baseball. "Buck" not only aided his position in a snappy manner, but connected safely three times, including a pair of triples. "Bron" led the team in the early stages and easily headed the column. Bronson put up an article of play at first base, handling thirteen chances without a mischance. He smacked out two hits.

Stearns took good care of three chances in his usual brilliant style, two of which were grounders labeled hits. He appears to be the best shortstop in the high school ranks in recent years, or rather, he made that impression yesterday.

Eastern students, temporarily demented by the victory, forgot in their excitement the man who gave Eastern a pennant winner. Warden Dyer, captain of the team, was overlooked. While Johnston, Shinn, and other members of the team were being cheered, Dyer was forgotten. Dyer has worked hard for the team all season, going behind the bat when Coan was inept, and catching good ball. He acted in conjunction with Coach Hatch, and deserves much of the credit for turning out a championship team with limited material.

The Eastern team is not the best second club in the series, but Dyer had his boys always fighting, which gained the championship. The game will long be remembered by the high school lads, as every minute was filled with excitement.
